

MANAGE MONEY MATTERS

By:
Yun Chen

His friends told him that : You should get yourself a schedule and plan for saving some money!

Derrick thought that managing his money would be the key point of his trip to Korea.

I need to get a part-time job and make a financial plan for myself!

AH HA!

Derrick got himself a notebook to record every expenses and setting a saving goal for the next month...

A Few month later, Derrick paid for the flights and hotel room of his trip to Korea. The most important thing is he learned that managing money is an essential work for most of us in real life to obtain our certain goals in life.
